

first baptist
Rock Hill

Our Role in Leading Others to Christ March 15, 2026

Biblical Passage: Romans 10:9-15

Memory Verse: Colossians 4:5-6

Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. Your speech must always be with grace, as though seasoned with salt, so that you will know how you should respond to each person.

Biblical Teaching:

1. Believe in your _____. Confess with your _____. Salvation is a _____ of _____. (Romans 10:9-10)
2. _____ who calls on the Lord is _____. No one is _____. God _____ all to come to Him. (Romans 10:11-13)
3. People cannot _____ unless they _____. Believers _____ the good news. Our feet are _____ when we go. (Romans 10:14-15)

Life-Group Discussion Questions:

- What part of this passage stands out most to you?
- What barriers keep you from sharing the Gospel?
- How can you prepare to share the Gospel more confidently?
- Why is it important to trust God and not your performance?

Action Step:

Write down one person and commit to pray for them daily and look for an opportunity to share.

Bible Reading Plan This Week:

Deuteronomy 31 • Deuteronomy 32 • Deuteronomy 34 • Joshua 1 • Joshua 2