

Encouraging One Another Faithfully

April 12, 2026

Hebrews 10:23-25

Main Point

Believers grow stronger when they consistently encourage one another toward faithfulness and love.

Part 1: Master Teacher (10 Minutes)

Introduction

Think about a time when someone encouraged you spiritually. How did it affect your faith and perseverance?

God uses encouragement through relationships to strengthen His people and help them remain faithful.

Biblical Teaching

1. Hold Firm to Hope (v. 23)
 - Our confidence is rooted in God's faithfulness.
 - Hope sustains perseverance.
 - Faith grows when hope is reinforced relationally.
2. Encourage One Another Toward Love (v. 24)
 - Encouragement stimulates spiritual growth.
 - Believers help one another grow in love.
 - Discipleship involves intentional encouragement.
3. Commit to Consistent Gathering (v. 25)
 - Consistent relationships strengthen faith.
 - Isolation weakens spiritual growth.
 - Community builds perseverance.

Takeaway

Encouragement strengthens believers and helps them remain faithful in their walk with Christ.

Part 2: Group Discussion (25 minutes)

Facilitator Guidance

- Focus on encouragement as an essential part of relational discipleship and spiritual growth.

Discussion Questions

1. Strengthening One Another Spiritually
 - How has encouragement helped your spiritual growth?
 - Why do believers need encouragement to remain faithful?
 - Who has encouraged you spiritually and how?
2. Becoming Intentional Encouragers
 - What keeps you from encouraging others consistently?
 - How can encouragement become a regular habit?
 - Who needs encouragement from you right now?
3. Prioritizing Relational Connection
 - Why is gathering with believers essential for spiritual growth?
 - How does isolation impact spiritual health?
 - What helps you stay connected to spiritual community?
4. Encouragement That Impacts the Lost
 - How can encouragement help others grow toward maturity?
 - How can your relationships help strengthen new believers?
 - How can encouragement help you move closer to Christ?
