Joining Christ's Global Mission

December 6, 2026

Matthew 28:18-20

Main Point

Jesus calls every believer to make disciples of all nations as part of His global mission.

Part 1: Master Teacher (10 Minutes)

Introduction

If Jesus has all authority, what does that mean for how you live on mission each day?

The Great Commission is not optional. It is the calling of every believer.

Biblical Teaching

1. Jesus Has All Authority (v. 18)
   - Authority belongs to Christ.
   - He reigns over all.
   - Our mission is rooted in His authority.
2. We Are Called to Make Disciples (v. 19)
   - The mission is intentional.
   - Discipleship involves relationship.
   - We are called to go.
3. Jesus Is Always With Us (v. 20)
   - We are not alone.
   - His presence gives confidence.
   - Faithfulness is sustained by Him.

Takeaway

Every believer is called to participate in God's global mission through making disciples.

Part 2: Group Discussion (25 minutes)

Facilitator Guidance

- Encourage participants to see disciple making as relational and ongoing, not just an event.

Discussion Questions

1. Understanding the Mission
    - What stands out to you about this passage?
    - Why is disciple making central to the Christian life?
    - How does this challenge your current priorities?
2. Living on Mission Daily
    - What does it look like to make disciples in everyday life?
    - Who are you investing in spiritually?
    - How can you be more intentional?
3. Going Beyond Comfort
    - What keeps people from engaging in mission?
    - How can you step outside your comfort zone?
    - What is one step you can take this week?
4. Mission Through Relationships
    - How do relationships support discipleship?
    - Who can you begin discipling?
    - How can your relationships create gospel opportunities?

Next Steps & Call to Action (5 minutes)

Facilitator Closing Thought:

The mission of Jesus is not something we watch. It is something we join through everyday obedience.

Action Step:

Identify one person you will intentionally invest in spiritually.

Prayer Focus:

- Pray for clarity.
- Pray for boldness.
- Pray for discipleship opportunities.
